

Botanical Painting Course

Castlebank Horticultural Centre, Lanark

The 5-week course is being run by local botanical artist Victoria Braithwaite. Victoria will demonstrate botanical painting techniques and tutor participants in creating their own botanical artworks. You will utilise flowers and plants from Castlebank Park as your inspiration, and if the weather allows, some classes may take place outdoors within the park grounds. Painting materials will be provided (Participants should bring their own pencil, rubber and sharpener). No experience necessary.

The cost of the 5-week course is £90 per person. This includes attendance at all 5 classes, painting materials and light refreshments.
